Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Page 1, after line 6, insert:

"Section 1. [14.112] [LOCAL GOVERNMENT IMPACT.]

The elected governing body of a statutory or home rule city, a county, a school district, a township, or a sanitary district may request the commissioner of finance to prepare a local impact note on a rule proposed by a state agency. The request must be made by submitting a resolution of the governing body to the commissioner of finance before a public hearing on a proposed rule is held, or if the agency intends to adopt the rule without a public hearing, before the deadline for requesting a public hearing. Upon receipt of a request, the commissioner of finance must prepare an estimate of the fiscal impact of the rule on each category of political subdivision requesting a local impact note. The commissioner may require any political subdivision or any state agency to supply information necessary for the commissioner to determine fiscal impact. The commissioner must prepare the local impact note before the close of the hearing record, or if there is no public hearing, before the agency submits the record to the administrative law judge.

Sec. 2. [14.127] [AGGREGATE COST OF COMPLYING WITH PROPOSED RULES; LEGISLATIVE APPROVAL REQUIRED.]

An agency must determine if the aggregate cost of complying with proposed rules on all affected persons or entities will exceed $100,000,000 in the first ten years that the rules are effective. An agency must make this determination before the close of the hearing record, or before the agency submits the record to the administrative law judge if there is no hearing. If the agency determines that the aggregate costs will exceed $100,000,000 in the first ten years, the rules may not take effect until the rules are approved by a law enacted after the agency determination. The administrative law judge must review and approve the agency's determination under this section. If the administrative law judge does not approve the agency's determination, the rules may not take effect until the rules are approved by a law enacted after the agency determination.

Page 2, line 25, delete "1" and insert "3"

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 2, after the semicolon, insert "requiring local government impact notes; requiring a determination of the aggregate cost of complying with proposed rules;"

Page 1, line 5, after "14.131" insert "; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14"

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on State Government Finance.

The report was adopted.
