

- 1.1 Supplemental Agreement for House Organization
1.2 94th Regular Legislative Session
1.3 March XX, 2025
- 1.4 12. Scope of Supplemental Agreement.
- 1.5 12.1. Rules 1.1, 1.3, and 3.1 of the Agreement for House Organization dated February 5, 2025,
1.6 apply to the terms of this supplemental agreement. To the extent a conflict exists between the terms
1.7 of this supplemental agreement and other applicable authority, including the Temporary Rules of
1.8 the House and the terms of the Agreement for House Organization dated February 5, 2025, the
1.9 terms of this supplement agreement prevail.
- 1.10 12.2. Each caucus leader agrees to work in good faith to secure ratification of this supplemental 1.11 agreement without further amendment.
- 1.12 13. Committee and Floor Procedure.
- 1.13 13.1. A minority report to a committee report is not in order.
- 1.14 13.2. The fiscal calendar established under House Rule 1.22 is not in effect.
- 1.15 13.3. If a question of germaneness is raised under House Rule 3.21 and the question is put to 1.16 the body, or if a decision of the presiding officer under House Rule 3.21 is appealed, the affirmative
1.17 vote of at least one member of each caucus is required to find the motion or proposition germane.
- 1.18 13.4. The following motions may only be approved by the House by the affirmative vote of at 1.19 least 68 members:
- 1.20 to adjourn sine die; and
- 1.21 to take a bill from the table.
- 1.22 13.5. A resolution to vacate the office of Speaker may only be approved by the House by the 1.23 affirmative vote of at least 68 members.

2.1 14. Legislative Coordinating Commission Duties.

2.2 14.1. The Speaker Emerita is designated as the Speaker of the House for the purpose of serving
2.3 as Legislative Coordinating Commission chair, as required by Minnesota Statutes, section 3.303,
2.4 subdivision 3.
