

Subject Sales tax exemption for state fair admissions, parking, and event tickets; State Agricultural Society debt limit increased

Authors Davids and others

Analyst Sean Williams

Date March 26, 2025

Overview

The bill provides a sales tax exemption for state fair admissions, parking at the State Fairgrounds, and for separately ticketed events occurring during the state fair.

The bill additionally raises the State Agricultural Society's debt limitation from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Summary

Section	Description
---------	-------------

1	Bonding authority.
---	---------------------------

Raises the State Agricultural Society's debt limit for state fair bonds from $30,000,000 to $50,000,000.

Effective July 1, 2025.

2	State Agricultural Society sales at state fairs.
---	---

Provides a sales tax exemption for:

- state fair admissions and parking at the State Fairgrounds; and
- admissions for separately ticketed events run by the State Agricultural Society.

The exemption is limited to sales occurring during the regularly scheduled state fair.

Effective for sales and purchase after June 30, 2025.